C.194.1938.VII.

FREE CITY OF DANZIG.

EXTENSION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF M. J. A. NEDERBRAGT AS PRESIDENT OF THE PORT AND WATERWAYS BOARD.[1]

NOTE BY THE SECRETARY-GENERAL.

Geneva, May 19th, 1938.

The Secretary-General has the honour to advise the Council that he has just been informed by the High Commissioner of the League at Danzig, that the Polish and Danzig Governments have agreed, in accordance with paragraph 2 of Article 19 of the Treaty between Poland and the Free City of Danzig concluded in Paris on November 9th, 1920, to extend the appointment of M. J. A. NEDERBRAGT as President of the Danzig Port and Waterways Board for two years—that is, until September 30th, 1940. M. Nederbragt has consented to continue in office.

[1] M. Nederbragt was appointed on October 1st, 1934, for a period of three years as the successor of M. Benziger (see Official Journal, August 1934, page 988), and reappointed for a further period of one year as from October 1st, 1937.
